

Catholic Charities caring for those in need

For Steve and Mary life has been challenging! They experienced job loss and severe debt. They turned to Catholic Charities to help them make a plan to get out of debt.

Through hard work and guidance from Catholic Charities they have begun to pay their debt. Catholic Charities helped them build strong financial skills and provided the plan for them to work their way out of the burden of debt.

Catholic Charities serves thousands of people every year through more than 20 ministries.

“I am proud to say, thanks to you, Mary and I are in the best financial state we have been in a long time.”
