

Youth Ministry

Youth ministry lights the fire of faith in young people who are the future of the Catholic Church. Through diocesan youth ministry, faith-filled leaders like Derrick learn to invite young people to experience God's mercy.

"Church is important to me because before Church I looked for life outside in different activities and I didn't find it, but in Church, where I have the Eucharist I find life, I find love and I find peace."--Derrick Diedrich, Hortonville

Catholic Charities

Agustina chose life at 17 and became a single mom. With guidance from Catholic Charities, she was able to graduate from high school, get her driver's license and live on her own.

Today she works full-time and goes to college all while parenting three year old Bella. Agustina is grateful for the merciful care she received from her Catholic Charities Case Manager, Jeanna Zuelke.

"Jeanna's been a miracle. I love Jeanna. Jeanna has given me confidence..."
--Agustina, Green Bay

Care Ministry

For Kathy Leist being a care minister means being the face of God's mercy to those who are sick and homebound.

For 14 years, Kathy has been visiting Elaine. They talk, pray, share stories and struggles. Kathy also brings her communion.

Kathy and hundreds of care ministers have been trained through the diocesan Care Ministry program.

"Care ministry training has helped me immeasurably." --Kathy Leist, Manitowoc

Our Diocese is a place of mercy and hope bringing compassion and the love of Jesus to thousands of people.

When we show others compassion we become the face of the merciful Jesus to those in search of His love.

One way we can become Faces of God's Mercy is through the Bishop's Appeal.

Please join me in supporting the Church with a gift today.

Thank you for your support!

"Mercy is the bridge that connects God and man, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness." - Pope Francis
