Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Pope Francis has reflected on the best way for us to know Jesus, describing it as “the most important work of our lives.” People accomplish many important works in their life...things like raising a family or making a mark in the professional world. Yes, these are important. But Jesus provides the foundation for everything we do. Pope Francis explains we must “pray to Him, celebrate Him, and imitate Him.” In other words, talk to Him, participate in Mass, and act as He would.

Many people choose to act like Christ by leaving a legacy. You might ask, “How do I want to be remembered? Who and what do I value most?” We are richly blessed here in northeastern Wisconsin. There are many faith-filled people who choose to leave a legacy through the Catholic Foundation to benefit their parish or favorite diocesan ministry.

The Catholic Foundation plays an important role in keeping the ministries and services of our diocese alive. Gifts to the Foundation help fund religious education programs and Catholic schools and help young people learn about Jesus. Several Foundation endowments support our seminarians, and others help our evangelization efforts.

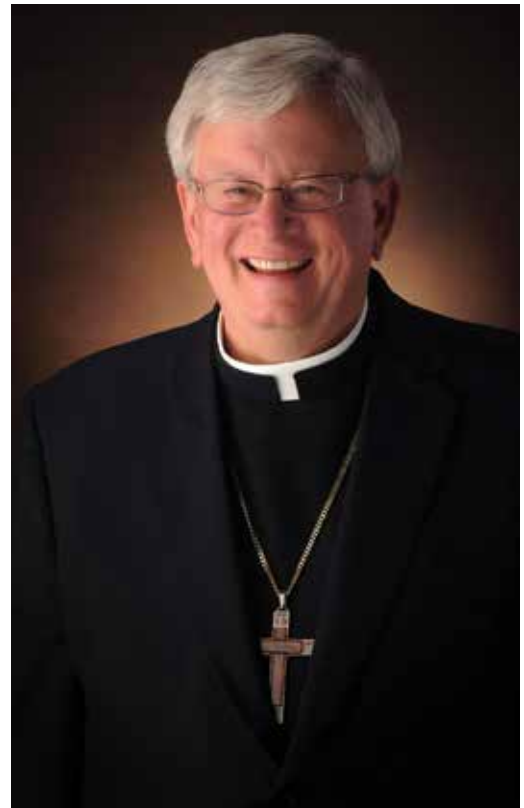

Thank you for supporting the mission of our Church through your generous gifts, what an incredible blessing! If you would like to leave a legacy, call Cindi or Josh at the Catholic Foundation.

May the Lord bless you and your loved ones, and reward you for your deep faith.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend David Ricken, DD, JCL
Bishop of Green Bay

Dear Friends,

Blessed Mother Teresa touched the lives of hundreds of thousands of people. She fought tirelessly to help people living in the slums of India, and ultimately founded the Missionaries of Charity which now reaches across the globe.

There is a tendency to associate legacy with greatness. We can't all become Mother Teresa, but we can use her legacy as inspiration to build our own.

One portion of your legacy likely includes providing for your loved ones in your will or living trust. Many people also place value in their faith, and the ministries and services of our Church. Have you considered supporting the Church and your favorite ministries long after you're gone? We see many people leaving a bequest to their parish, to an endowment for religious education, or to a fund that reaches out to the poor.

Since 1997, the Catholic Foundation has grown to $85 million, and distributed more than $29 million to Catholic schools, parishes and organizations. These distributions are possible because many people leave bequests of all sizes...it is the combined effort of thousands of people, not simply a few. Become part of our continued legacy, and leave a legacy of your own. As you page through this report, you might find just the fund that touches your heart. Perhaps you'll be inspired to create your own endowment that can share the light of Christ forever. Call me to discuss how you would like to leave your legacy.

Many thanks to all of our friends. God's blessing on you and those you love!

Sincerely,

Paul Schneider
President

Cindi K. Brawner
Executive Director

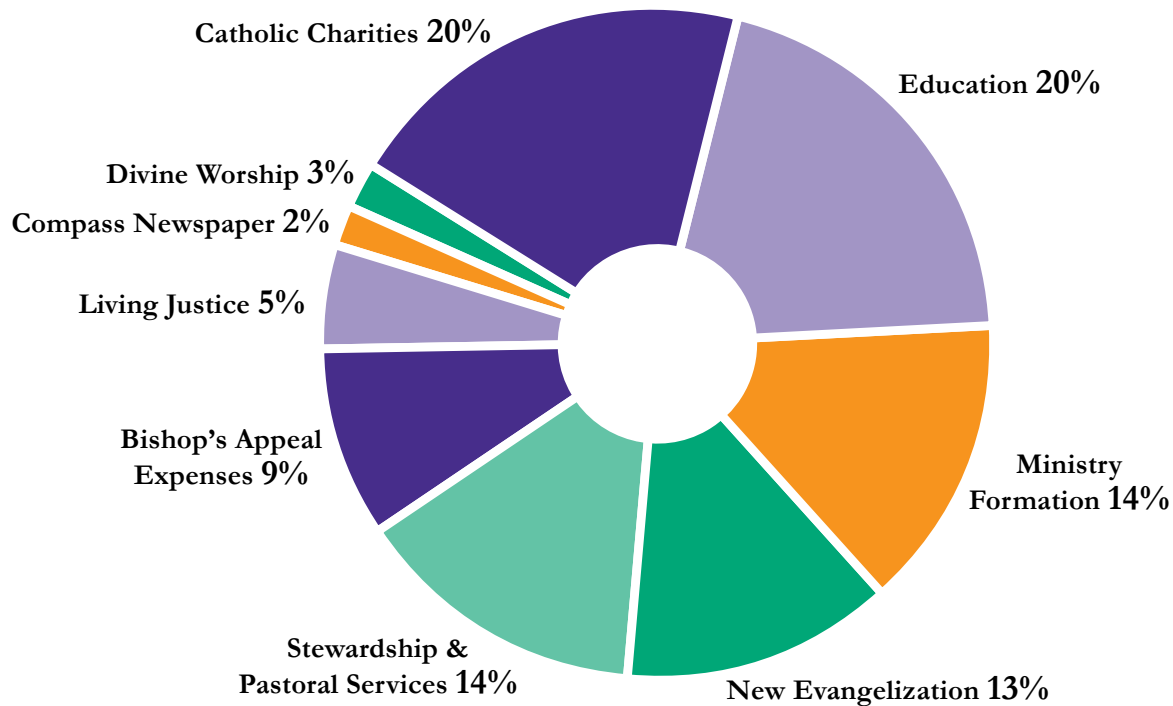

“Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love.”

– Blessed Mother Teresa

Bishop's Appeal

Year after year, we witness the tremendous care people extend to others through gifts to the Bishop's Appeal. Thanks to funding provided through the Appeal, people like Deacon Ernesto Gonzalez are trained and formed in the diaconate, engaged couples attend Marriage Preparation classes, and the faith journey of young adults is inspired through Encounter worship sessions.

The Bishop's Appeal is an annual fundraising campaign conducted by the Catholic Foundation to benefit the ministries and services of the Diocese of Green Bay. These ministries help form and train lay ministers, and supports Catholic schools and religious education. Through the generosity of the people of northeastern Wisconsin, the 2015 Bishop's Appeal raised more than $5.6 million.

World Mission Services

Life is very challenging for 1,000 young girls at Stella Maris Boarding School in Uganda. Their living conditions are primitive. There is no running water, electricity is scarce, and latrines are holes in the ground. Fortunately, they are cared for by the Little Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi, who continually improve their lives.

During the Missionary Cooperation Appeal they raised $9,000 to install a water collection system at the motherhouse. Through the Projects Available Booklet, they raise funds to farm chickens and pigs.

The World Missions office provides support to many missionaries across the globe through other activities such as Catholic Relief Services, and the Pontifical Mission Societies.

“We are so grateful for the help we have received from the Diocese of Green Bay.”

— Sr. Juliet, Little Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi.

Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help

Thousands of people come to the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in Champion, Wisconsin every year to feel the love of our Blessed Mother Mary. Pilgrims have shared stories of healing and conversion at the Shrine since 1859, when the Blessed Mother first appeared to young Adele Brise.

The Shrine is supported by the generosity of faith-filled people from around the country. They receive fundraising assistance from the Catholic Foundation. In addition, the Foundation works with friends of the Shrine to establish endowments, and invites people to remember the Shrine in their will.

“The Holy Mother did not appear in a crowded city or to people of wealth and power. Instead, she appeared to an unlikely person in an unlikely place. In doing so, she made it clear to all the world that there is no one anywhere who is beyond the reach of God’s generous love.”

— Bishop David Ricken

Seminarian Collection

The Seminarian Collection invites the people of our diocese to participate in the education and formation of our future priests. Our seminarians are devoted men of faith who will nourish God's people with His word, renew the Church with His sacraments, and lead His people in love.

Newly ordained priest Fr. Edward Looney is grateful for the Seminarian Collection. The Seminarian Collection provides funding for tuition, room and board, insurance, the Vocations department and other expenses. In 2014, the Collection raised more than $765,000. Seminarians also receive support through several Catholic Foundation endowments.

“One of the best things about being a priest is being a part of other people’s lives and accompanying them as they encounter God.”

– Father Edward Looney

Students Attend March for Life in Washington D.C.

Imagine spending 17 hours on a bus crammed full of students in the middle of winter. The bus is buzzing with conversation and brimming with excitement. These proud students will stand before the nation voicing their opinions about the value of life.

Torey Gostas attended her fifth annual March for Life in January 2015. She is one of twelve diocesan Core Team Leaders to oversee 120 high school students attending the pilgrimage.

“I believe we are the generation that will change the hearts of people in this world, and overturn Roe v. Wade. I am passionately pro-life, and we need to share the pro-life message everywhere we go. Not just for the right to life of the unborn, but for the elderly, the unwanted, and those who feel they have no purpose in this world,” says Gostas.

Thanks to a grant from the Advancing the Mission Evangelization Endowment, leaders were trained to evangelize and give witness talks to students about joining the pilgrimage. Additionally, students in need of financial aid received scholarships from the Monica Meyer Fund.

Investment in these two funds has resulted in building disciples for our Church who believe in the right to life. If you would like to make a donation to either of these funds, or want to establish your own endowment, please call Cindi Brawner at 920-272-8173, or email cbrawner@gbdioc.org.

“Each trip has impacted me in a different way, opened up my heart to more people, and given me the hope to continue praying and standing up for the most vulnerable of us all.”

– Torey Gostas

Emmaus Candidates Learn the Ministry of Leading Prayer

In the Gospel of John, Jesus tells His disciples to “love one another.” These words resonate with candidates in the diocesan Emmaus program who are on the path to work in pastoral care, liturgy, faith formation, youth ministry, and parish business management. During their training they come to live fully with Christ, and learn to share His love with one another.

Paula Rieder shares her love of Jesus daily. After volunteering in ministry for 14 years, she completed her Emmaus journey and is following her true calling as Coordinator of Pastoral Ministry at St. Raphael Parish in Oshkosh.

One of Paula’s classes was called “The Ministry of Leading Prayer.” Here, Paula found prayer to be a powerful component in her formation. She, along with 18 other candidates, completed this course, and will serve parishes and nursing homes as Lay Leaders of Prayer in nine different prayer rites.

Emmaus candidates receive grant funding from the Advancing the Mission Leadership Development Endowment, as well as from the Bishop’s Appeal. This funding provides financial assistance to complete the rigorous Emmaus certification program.

Paula is grateful for her formation experiences and instructors. She loves reaching out to share the love of Christ with others through word, prayer and Eucharist.

“The financial aid I received from the Catholic Foundation was very helpful. Through the Ministry of Leading Prayer training, I learned that prayer is not only in what we say, but in how we move – it’s a full experience.”

— Paula Rieder, Coordinator of Pastoral Ministry
St. Raphael’s Parish, Oshkosh

Thank you to our donors who have thoughtfully looked ahead and remembered the Catholic Foundation through their wills and estate planning. They have helped secure the future of our funds, and facilitated the ongoing activity of their life's work and efforts. We, and those we serve, are fortunate and grateful.”

For more information on planned giving, contact Cindi K. Brawner at CBrawner@gbdioc.org

Planned Giving

Planned giving is the act of making a charitable contribution where the method and timing benefit both the recipient and the contributor. The recipient can make long-range plans while relying on a dependable source for future funding. And the donor can reap numerous benefits: income tax incentives, guaranteed lifetime income, reduction or elimination of estate taxes, and the satisfaction of making an important charitable gift to a worthy cause, to name just a few. The possible ways of financing a planned gift are nearly limitless. They include:

Charitable Will Bequest — Bequeath gifts of real estate, cash, or other property as a last will and testament with the knowledge that it will benefit a charitable cause.

Charitable Living Will — Provide for eventual gifts or real estate, cash or other property knowing that all or part of the assets may be returned upon request.

Charitable Gift Annuity — Receive fixed annual payments for life which, for a period of time, may be partially free of taxes as well as an initial income tax reduction.

Charitable Remainder Trusts — May bypass capital gains tax at the time the trust is created, and may receive federal estate tax savings.

Charitable Lead Trust — Transfer assets to heirs with little or no estate and gift taxes.

Life Insurance Policies — After a policy is no longer needed for its intended use, feel the satisfaction of giving to a charitable beneficiary.

Endowment Life Insurance Policies — Make a charitable gift to an organization which purchases a policy in the donor's name. When policy becomes self-funding, it is then designated to a beneficiary consistent with donor's wishes.

Gifts of Appreciated Property — Includes real estate, timber rights, personal property, pension or retirement funds, stocks and marketable securities, works of art and special collections.

CHARITABLE giving is an act of FAITH.

What you GIVE is less important than the SPIRIT in which you give.

The LORD has blessed each of us with many GIFTS in life — gifts of good health and talents which have allowed us to CARE for ourselves and others.

As faithful stewards of these gifts, please consider GIVING back in GRATITUDE for receiving them.
