Discipleship Formation Draws People Closer to Christ

Jesus found his disciples in ordinary people whom God used in extraordinary ways. The disciples knew and loved Jesus immensely and shared His love with everyone they encountered.

Through your support of the Bishop's Appeal and the many ministries of the Diocese, we proclaim the Gospel and bring people to Christ. In Catholic schools and faith formation programs educators teach children to know and love Jesus. People struggling most in life with addictions, loss of a loved one or a financial crisis receive help through the social service programs at Catholic Charities.

Your support of the Bishop's Appeal positively impacts our parishes and communities. Together as missionary disciples we are helping people discover, follow, worship and share Jesus!
