

Catholic Foundation

for the Diocese of Green Bay, Inc.

Lumen Christi Grant

The Lumen Christi endowment is the result of the first major Diocesan fundraising effort in the Diocese of Green Bay, conducted in 1988. Since its inception, Lumen Christi has distributed more than $27 million in assistance. This includes an annual distribution to every parish in the Diocese for their Religious Education Program. It also includes an annual distribution to every Catholic school and school system in the Diocese of Green Bay to offset the cost of Catholic Schools. There is also a scholarship grant available to provide:

- Tuition assistance for academic development of educational leaders, whether in religious education programs or a Catholic school. This includes Master of Theology and Master of Educational Administration programs.

Important Dates

- Grant cycle opens: October 1
- Grant cycle closes: December 1
